College & Career Group

Led by Pastor Nate Utley [Room 207 at 11:00]

C&C is a group of young single adults striving to live and grow together in spiritual community. We gather each Sunday morning hoping to encourage each other, help each other, and grow together. We're going to dive into the book of Joel together in January, and then move on to 1 Peter in April. If you're a single adult in the college or career stage of life, please come join us on Sunday mornings as well as for other regular opportunities of fun, fellowship, and service. We'd love to have you!

Sunday Morning Adult Bible Studies Winter-Spring 2017

"We offer a variety of Bible studies. Each study group is designed to foster edifying relationships and deepen your understanding of God's Word. Take advantage of this great opportunity to help you 'grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ' (2 Pet 3:18)."

Foundations

Discussion-oriented exploration of fundamental Bible truths. Excellent course for those who are new to faith in Christ.

Led by Bob Cook [Room 221 at 9:30]

- ◆ The Holy Spirit: God's Presence in You
- ◆ Progressive Sanctification: God's Work in You
- ◆ Stewardship: Your Gift to God
- ◆ Evangelism: Your Ministry to the World

Answers in Genesis

Led by Manuele Russo
[Room 306 at 9:30]

How can we know that God created the world? Is there a conflict between science and the Bible? Should Christians accept evolution as fact? Is there any evidence for a world-wide flood? How do beliefs about origins shape the way we see the world around us? Why is there sin and suffering? These questions and many others will be discussed as we watch videos from Christian experts and study relevant Scripture passages. Pastor Kevin will be preaching through Genesis in 2017, and our class aims to discuss modern applications based in the text of the Bible's first book. Come join us as we search the Scriptures to find God's answers!

Study of Hebrews

Led by Bryan Statt [Room 207 at 9:30]

Join us for a study through the Epistle to the Hebrews, magnifying The Lord Jesus Christ as perfect and superior in comparison to anything the old covenant had to offer. Written to persecuted believers to strengthen and reinforce their faith, this study should prove to be a timely and applicable blessing as we dig deep, discuss and discover the great truths of this letter.

Study of Matthew 18-28

Led by Pastor Jerry Ascher [Room 312 at 9:30]

This course is a continuation of a study begun last fall. Matthew is writing primarily to the Jews, defending Jesus' claims by quoting Old Testament prophecy more than 60 times throughout the book and by constantly referring to Christ as the "Son of David." Practical applications of this study will be to encourage those in their witness for Christ in a world that is becoming increasingly hostile toward the Word of God and Christianity, and to deepen their understanding of the person and work of Jesus Christ.

Faithful Sayings: Confessions of Faith and Sound Theology

Led by Duncan Johnson [Room 221 at 11:00]

Orthodox Christians have used creeds and confessions over the millennia as a tool for teaching sound doctrine, godly worship, and holy living. While Scripture remains supreme as our "only sufficient, certain, and infallible rule," (Second London Confession 1.1) these pithy statements of faith help us to succinctly express the teachings of Scripture itself. In this study, we will look at ancient and modern creeds, where we will find a remarkable consensus on the core truths of Christianity. By surveying the development of the creeds, we will also better understand our own connection to the stream of Christian tradition as we examine distinctly Baptist contributions to Christian theology.
